Grand Opening

Please join us in the grand opening of Lunt Chiropractic on November 29, 2017! Doctor Kelsey Lunt and Lisa Taylor have joined forces to create a warm, inviting, beautiful new office within the old Doll Hospital on Buffalo Road in North Chili, NY. Dr. Kelsey has been working hard since July to make Lunt Chiropractic a reality and has made many changes within the 100 year old building. The Gates Chili Chamber of Commerce will be sponsoring a ribbon cutting ceremony in celebration of Lunt Chiropractic at the grand opening on November 29.

What's New

We've gone electronic! In an effort to save paper and create efficiency, Doctor Kelsey decided to implement a new, top of the line software system for Lunt Chiropractic. This means that, when you enter our doors for your appointment, you will be able to check in automatically on an office-provided iPad to let the doctor know what is bothering you. Likewise, new patients will be able to enter all their information directly into the office software on the iPad, which ensures accuracy and HIPAA compliance.

Lunt Chiropractic is as kid-friendly as ever! Doctor Kelsey has provided a friendly, inviting atmosphere for families to enjoy. Patients are always encouraged to bring their children to appointments if they so choose.

Our office is also undergoing an exterior makeover in order to better accommodate patients and traffic! The back lot is to be paved within the next month, including widening the base of the driveway entrance. Eventually there will also be a separate entrance and egress, as the owner of the property has recently acquired the property next door.

Insurance Update

At this time, Doctor Kelsey is still waiting on approval from various insurance companies for provider enrollment. We are very aware that many are waiting on network approval before scheduling appointments, and are working hard to try to expedite the process in whatever way possible. Doctor Kelsey is currently able to accept No Fault insurance, Workers Compensation (new cases only), and any insurance policy with a deductible that has not been met. We encourage you to call the office for further clarification; Doctor Kelsey is working with patients in whatever way she can to accommodate everyone's needs. In the meantime, we do not want anyone suffering if in need and sincerely encourage patients to contact the office should you need an appointment. Please refer to both the website and Facebook for further updates; we will be sure to inform everyone as soon as we hear more!

What's to Come

In the coming weeks, you will see some changes and further additions at Lunt Chiropractic. Doctor Kelsey will be implementing Metagenics nutraceuticals to take care of all of your nutritional needs. She will be stocking supplements such as Magnesium, B Complex (Glycogenics), Omega 3, Vitamin D, and the ever popular Myocalm P.M., among others! Lunt Chiropractic will also be offering new, personalized merchandise such as t-shirts and mugs for those who are waiting. We currently have stock in Sombra Gel, lumbar support pillows, TENs units, heating pads, ice packs and heel lifts to meet any other need you may have. As always, we appreciate your patronage and will continue to offer free consultations to help give patients a better understanding of their condition and what supplemental products may help.

Lunt Chiropractic also markets Young Living Essential Oils through Ashley Lunt, our independent distributor. Ashley is able to answer any questions you may have regarding this quickly-expanding industry and help select specific oils to aid in problems for which you are looking to utilize oils. Ashley can also formulate custom body butters, chapstick, roller blends, bath bombs and more for a host of different issues, which also makes for great gifts for the holidays!

Doctor Kelsey is excited to announce the verification of her business by Google, and wants to thank each and every patient who has contributed or left positive feedback. She is overwhelmed by the support from all of you who have helped take Lunt Chiropractic from a dream to a reality. Please continue to leave reviews on Google, Healthgrades, and Facebook to further aid in our exposure to the community as a new office!
